

Terminology Services - Vocabulary Catalog List Detail Report

Term
Transpiration Definition: The loss of water vapor by plants through tiny holes in their leaves called stomata. According to Environment Canada, an actively growing plant may transpire as much as ten times the amount of water it can hold at once within a twenty-four hour period.